

Stourbridge law firm advises CMA Moldform on prestigious new premises

The commercial property department of Stourbridge based law firm, Wall James Chappell, has recently advised CMA Moldform on its latest acquisition of a unit at Spitfire Park Birmingham, Fort Dunlop. Ruth Latham, a partner at the firm, lead the transaction.

CMA Moldform is a Birmingham based international company specialising in plastics and mouldings and supplies a diverse range of industries including the automotive, medical, aerospace, board games and film industries. Due to its success and growth the expanding company instructed Wall James Chappell to advise on four acquisitions on the Spitfire Industrial Estate to cope with increased production.

Peter Turnock, a director of CMA Moldform commented: “The advice given by Ruth Latham has been invaluable. She explained carefully and thoroughly the obligations in the various leases and has dealt with the matter with an understanding of the commercial pressures to get the matters completed as quickly as possible.”

Ruth Latham added “CMA Moldform has been a client of the firm for a number of years now. As a firm, Wall James Chappell, is pleased to be able to provide support for its commercial property and corporate needs during an exciting period of expansion and success.”

Wall James Chappell was founded in 1830 and provides a comprehensive legal service to both business and private clients. The leading law firm is based in Stourbridge and provides specialist advice to clients both locally and internationally.
