

New Commercial Manager Appointed

Stourbridge Football Club are delighted to announce the arrival of Vic Younis, Partner and Head of Dispute Resolution at local law firm Wall James Chappell as their new Commercial Manager.

Andy Bullingham, Vice Chairman commented “We are delighted Vic has agreed to join the club and this further strengthens the relationship the club has with local businesses. Vic will look to both work with and expand our commercial department whilst ensuring existing sponsors receive great value for their generous support. The club is looking to enhance its various diversity programmes which Vic will play an active role in. Everyone at the club wishes Vic every success with his new role”.

On his appointment, Vic commented “As a local lad who is passionate about supporting community projects, I am delighted to be given the opportunity to work with Stourbridge FC, which is the heartbeat of the community. I look forward to working with everyone at the club and those associated with it”.

For all commercial opportunities, Vic can be contacted at commercial@stourbridgefc.com or on 01384 394040.
