

Top Family Solicitor joins Wall James Chappell

Wall James Chappell are pleased to announce that Sara Anderson has joined the firm's ever-growing and striving family law department.

Sara is a well-regarded family solicitor having spent nearly 10 years working as a family practitioner in and around the West Midlands. Sara has a wealth of experience in dealing with all aspects of private family matters including divorce, property and financial matters, cohabitee disputes and Non-Molestation Orders.

Sara has a notable expertise in representing parents at Court in relation to arrangements for children i.e. which parent a child is to live with and the level of time spent with the non-resident parent.

Sara has a compassionate nature and a down-to-earth approach and goes out of the way to put clients at ease and to address their concerns head-on. Outside of work, Sara is a keen Manchester United supporter and enjoys reading and playing hockey and badminton.

Sara commented "I am very pleased to have joined Wall James Chappell and look forward to working with the family law team going forward. This is a great opportunity to further my career and to continue to provide clear concise advice to clients in respect of family law matters. The nature of my work means I have a clear understanding as to the turbulent times clients are experiencing and I make it my duty to ensure the process runs as smoothly as possible for them".

Jonathan Browne, head of family law commented "I am delighted that Sara has joined us. She shares at the firm's approach to protect what matters most and allow people to move on with their lives from what can be a stressful and emotional experience".
