

Solicitor Apprentice Obtains Law Degree

Wall James Chappell are delighted to announce that Solicitor Apprentice Kate Morris recently graduated with a 2:1 Law degree and is now on the final stretch towards full qualification as a Solicitor.

The firm appointed Kate in 2017 as it's first ever Apprentice and the programme which last's six years, operated in conjunction with the University of Law, offers a work-based learning route to qualify as a solicitor. The next step for Kate is to sit the SQE's and if successful she will then become a qualified Solicitor.

James Rousell, Senior Partner commented “ the firm is extremely proud of Kate and we will continue to support her on the last part of her journey before qualification. The firm was one of the first in the area to offer the training programme and we will continue to offer it in the future”.

Kate Morris, “I am grateful for the firm's investment, support, and guidance over the last few years. I'm looking forward to my SQE's and achieving my goal of becoming a Solicitor”

Wall James Chappell was founded in 1830 and provides a comprehensive legal service to both business and private clients. The leading law firm is based in Stourbridge and provides specialist advice to clients both locally and internationally.
